SCP AUCTIONS ANNOUNCES LINEUP OF FEATURED EXHIBITS SLATED FOR 2015 NATIONAL SPORTS COLLECTORS CONVENTION

Company encourages visits from consignors and buyers alike on the show floor in Chicago from July 29 through August 2

Laguna Niguel, Calif. (July 13, 2015) – SCP Auctions, one of the nation's largest sports memorabilia auction houses, is excited to announce that it will be exhibiting several premium items at this year's National Sports Collectors Convention (July 29 to August 2) at the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center in Rosemont, Illinois. Buyers, sellers, collectors sports fans are encouraged to swing by and peruse the firm's assortment of top-notch lots and ask questions to its knowledgeable staff. SCP Auctions' booth (#s 1013, 1015, 1112 and 1114) will be located just inside the convention center's main entrance. SCP Auctions Principals David Kohler and Dan Imler will be on hand buying and selling important sports memorabilia and cards, as well as providing generous cash advances to consignors of noteworthy pieces.

Many high-end items featured in the company's fast-approaching online 2015 Mid-Summer Classic Auction (August 5 to 22) will be on display including two rare pieces from the late, great Chicago Cubs star Ernie Banks. The first is Banks' impeccably preserved 1968 Chicago Cubs home jersey, while the second is an autographed bat the Hall of Famer used during the 1964 season in which he belted 23 home runs and drove in 95 runs. Other top items on display that are scheduled for SCP Auctions' 2015 Mid-Summer Classic include:

- 1936 Winter Olympics Gold Medal presented to Great Britain hockey goalie Jimmy Foster;
- 1938 New York Yankees Championship Gold Medal Pocket Watch presented to Johnny Murphy (The Johnny Murphy Collection);
- 1950-51 Ted Williams Signed Boston Red Sox Game Worn Home Jersey (MEARS A5.5);
- 7/22/2014 Derek Jeter Signed New York Yankees Game Worn Home Uniform & Signed Second Base used to break Lou Gehrig's franchise doubles record;
