Kobe Final Career Road Game Uniform and Shoes Combine for Nearly Half a Million at SCP's Fall Premier

Laguna Niguel, Calif. (December 3, 2023) – SCP Auctions' 2023 Fall Premier concluded with a flurry of bidding on Saturday night, as bidders brought Kobe Bryant's uniform and shoes to a combined $485,197. In all, the auction brought nearly $3 million in sales and five items exceeded six figures.

SCP Auctions presented the full uniform and shoes the late, great Kobe Bryant wore in the final career road game of his 20-year career with the Los Angeles Lakers. The photomatched uniform sold for $366,967, while the kicks brought another $118,230.

The auction also included a historic 2016 Novak Djokovic match used and photomatched racquet from the French Open final that year that sold for $107,482. This is one of the highest tennis racquet sales ever, for the racquet that helped Djokovic complete his career Grand Slam.

The auction also included some solid vintage card results. A PSA 6 1952 Topps Mantle went for $188,310, a 1902-11 Sporting Life Cabinets John "Hans" Wagner graded PSA 5 brought $87,846, and a 1911 M116 Sporting Life Hans Wagner graded PSA NM-MT 8 took in $82,864.

The sale also included part one of the best collection of Pete Rose cards ever to be offered publicly. The first portion of the second-ranked Pete Rose master set out of over 100 in the PSA registry brought in a combined $335,336. Multiple cards in the collection were new world record results, including a 1973 Topps PSA 10 that went for $34,621, a 1971 Topps PSA 9 that sold for $26,896, and a 1974 Topps PSA 10 that brought $17,762.

Christian Laettner also consigned several dozen items from his personal collection to SCP. His 1992 NCAA championship ring excelled with a final price of $59,135. Other items that did well in his collection were his 1991 NCAA championship ring that took in $20,035, and his blue uniform from the 1992 Dream Team that went for $20,035.

Other substantial game used memorabilia items excelled in the sale. A Michael Jordan rookie game worn jersey graded MEARS A10 sold for $100,266, a game used ball from Kobe's 61-point game at Madison Square Garden brought $66,632, and a 2022 LeBron James gamer went for $55,152.
