Marquee Michael Jordan Items Set Records in SCP's Fall Premier

Laguna Niguel, Calif. (November 24, 2024) – SCP Auctions' 2024 Fall Premier saw plenty of action as it closed Saturday night and was topped by multiple significant Michael Jordan items that set new world records.

The first was the shorts Jordan wore in all three home games of the "Last Dance" 1998 NBA Finals, which went for a final price of $216,000. The photomatched shorts set a record for any game worn basketball shorts.

The auction also featured an autographed 1984 Star #101 Jordan rookie graded BGS NM-MT+ 8.5 with a Beckett 9 auto. This high-grade card sold for $312,000, a record for the grade and over $100,000 more than the last result.

Multiple game used bats brought strong results as well. The bat Willie Mays used to hit his 660th and final career home run went for $204,000, a 1951 Ted Williams club graded PSA/DNA GU 10 brought $96,000, and a 1967-68 Willie Mays bat graded PSA/DNA GU 10 sold for $90,000.

The sale also included some vintage cards that performed admirably. A 1933 Goudey #144 Babe Ruth graded PSA NM-MT 8 sold for $216,000, a 1935 Pebble Beach Clothiers postcards near set went for $51,000, and a 1961 Fleer Wilt Chamberlain In Action rookie signed and inscribed on the back of the card sold for $31,200.

Some other solid basketball game worn memorabilia rounded out the auction. A 2019 LeBron James game worn jersey photomatched to a triple-double performance brought $60,000. Another James gamer from opening night and the Lakers' ring ceremony in December 2020 went for $48,000. A 2021 Stephen Curry game worn jersey took in $28,800, and a pair of 2022 Luka Doncic jerseys photomatched to the first and second half of a 40-point triple-double sold for $26,400.
